

IIT Bhubaneswar to carry its ninth annual convocation in Hybrid mode

By user December 2, 2020

19 0

IIT Bhubaneswar will maintain its ninth Annual Convocation on Friday in 'Hybrid Mode' the place college students could have the selection to hitch the programme in particular person or in on-line mode in view of the pandemic state of affairs, an announcement issued by the institute stated.

Union Training Minister Ramesh Pokhriyal would be the chief visitor and shall be addressing the convocation by way of video conferencing, whereas Union Minister of State for Training Sanjay Dhotre would be the visitor of honour.

The institute will confer levels to 446 college students, together with 35 Ph.D., 141 M. Tech., 70 M.Sc. and 200 B. Tech in the course of the convocation.

Prof R V Raja Kumar, Director, IIT Bhubaneswar stated, the convocation is a celebration of the commencement of scholars who earned their levels by way of exhausting work and the institute is eager on their reside participation.

In the course of the occasion, the Union training minister is scheduled to inaugurate the scholar exercise centre (SAC), play courts and the constructing of the College of Humanities, Social Sciences and Administration, of the institute, the assertion stated.

<https://onnewsplus.com/iit-bhubaneswar-to-carry-its-ninth-annual-convocation-in-hybrid-mode/>