

IIT Bhubaneswar to hold its 9th annual convocation in Hybrid mode

December 2, 2020

IIT Bhubaneswar will hold its 9th Annual Convocation on Friday in ‘Hybrid Mode’ the place college students could have the selection to be a part of the programme in individual or in on-line mode in view of the pandemic scenario, a press release issued by the institute stated.

Union Education Minister Ramesh Pokhriyal would be the chief visitor and will probably be addressing the convocation by means of video conferencing, whereas Union Minister of State for Education Sanjay Dhotre would be the visitor of honour.

The institute will confer levels to 446 college students, together with 35 Ph.D., 141 M. Tech., 70 M.Sc. and 200 B. Tech in the course of the convocation.

Prof R V Raja Kumar, Director, IIT Bhubaneswar stated, the convocation is a celebration of the commencement of scholars who earned their levels by means of onerous work and the institute is eager on their stay participation.

During the occasion, the Union schooling minister is scheduled to inaugurate the coed exercise centre (SAC), play courts and the constructing of the School of Humanities, Social Sciences and Management, of the institute, the assertion stated.

<https://newzzhub.com/iit-bhubaneswar-to-hold-its-9th-annual-convocation-in-hybrid-mode/>