

IIT Bhubaneswar to hold its 9th annual convocation in Hybrid mode

7 hours ago

Advertisement

IIT Bhubaneswar will maintain its ninth Annual Convocation on Friday in ‘Hybrid Mode’ the place college students may have the selection to hitch the programme in individual or in on-line mode in view of the pandemic scenario, a press release issued by the institute stated.

Union Schooling Minister Ramesh Pokhriyal would be the chief visitor and might be addressing the convocation via video conferencing, whereas Union Minister of State for Schooling Sanjay Dhotre would be the visitor of honour.

The institute will confer levels to 446 college students, together with 35 Ph.D., 141 M. Tech., 70 M.Sc. and 200 B. Tech in the course of the convocation. Prof R V Raja Kumar, Director, IIT Bhubaneswar stated, the convocation is a celebration of the commencement of scholars who earned their levels via onerous work and the institute is eager on their reside participation.

Throughout the occasion, the Union training minister is scheduled to inaugurate the coed exercise centre (SAC), play courts and the constructing of the Faculty of Humanities, Social Sciences and Administration, of the institute, the assertion stated.

<https://piecebusiness.com/iit-bhubaneswar-to-hold-its-9th-annual-convocation-in-hybrid-mode/>