

Education Updated: December 2, 2020

IIT Bhubaneswar will hold its 9th annual convocation in hybrid mode

N

By The New Zealand Times December 2, 2020 6 Share

IIT Bhubaneswar will hold its 9th annual convocation on Friday in “ hybrid mode ”, where students will have the choice of joining the program in person or online mode given the pandemic situation, according to a statement released by the institute .

Union Minister of Education Ramesh Pokhriyal will be the main guest and address the convocation via video conference, while Union Minister of State for Education Sanjay Dhotre will be the main guest. ‘guest of honor.

The institute will award diplomas to 446 students, including 35 doctoral students, 141 M. Tech., 70 M.Sc. and 200 B. Tech at the convocation.

Professor RV Raja Kumar, Director of IIT Bhubaneswar, said the convocation is a graduation celebration for the students who graduated through hard work and the institute is keen for their live participation.

During the event, the Union Minister of Education is expected to inaugurate the Student Activities Center (SAC), the playgrounds and the building of the School of Humanities, Social Sciences and management of the institute, the statement said.

<https://www.thenewzealandtimes.com/iit-bhubaneswar-will-hold-its-9th-annual-convocation-in-hybrid-mode/>