

bhubaneswar plus

OSDA chairman inspires all with lecture at IIT Bbsr's AR/VR conclave

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
BHUBANESWAR, 12 JANUARY:

Subroto Bagchi, chairman, Odisha Skill Development Authority delivered a thought provoking and inspiring talk by citing real life examples at the valedictory of the AR/VR Conclave and Hackathon at IIT Bhubaneswar.

Mr Bagchi encouraged the participants to venture in to uncharted areas and take up activities in the field of AR/VR.

The Hackathon was organised in association with Software Technology Parks of India (STPI), Odisha. Ms Susmita Bagchi handed over the awards to the winners of the AR/VR Conclave and Hackathon.

The two best teams who got the cash award of Rs. 50,000 and Rs. 25,000 were Learn-O-Little team (Neha Tuli, Gurwinder Singh, Shivam Dhall) and AR Hub (Rahul Talukdar, Kumar Utkarsh, Yelchuri Venkata Sai Subbha, Sushant Shukla) respectively. Prof R V Raja Kumar, Director IIT

Bhubaneswar, congratulated all participating institutions and teams. The Conclave and Hackathon is conceptualized to encourage creativity and technology development amongst the engineering students across the country, in AR-VR, he said.