

The Orissa Post

Date: 22.09.2018

IIT Bhub convocation today

POST NEWS NETWORK

Bhubaneswar, Sept 21: The Indian Institute of Technology Bhubaneswar, is all set to hold its 7th annual convocation September 22 at its Argul campus. According to reports, Ashutosh Sharma, Union secretary of the Department of Science and Technology, is scheduled to attend the ceremony. A total of 322 students will receive degrees on the day, said the official sources. Out of them, 152 are B Tech students, 91 M Tech, 69 M Sc and 10 Ph.D.

Three medals will be awarded to meritorious B Tech students and six silver medals for M Tech and M Sc students of different schools. The student, who has topped in most of the subjects, will get President's Gold Medal, said a senior IIT administrator.

RV Rajakumar said that in order to inspire the students of the national institute noted personalities will attend the convocation. "We have also arranged a cultural function towards the end of the ceremony," he added. The institute has recorded 96 per cent placement in 2017-18.