

17th Feb, 2020

When budding engineers showcased culinary skills

Food is the universal currency of love and students of IIT-Bhubaneswar left everyone spellbound with their gastronomic delights

A student prepares a dish at the food fest

POST NEWS NETWORK

BHUBANESWAR: There is no love more sincere than the love for food. The same was epitomised with celebratory flavours Sunday at IIT, Bhubaneswar through 'Food Fest 2020', organised by the Student isfaction and pleasure to see their progress on all fronts including successful execution of the event with perfection. I would like to congratulate each participating student for showcasing their innovative culinary skills during this food fest and I wish them good luck in all their future endeavours."

This year, fifteen teams set their food stalls inside the campus. These fifteen teams included students from various departments, hostel staff and faculty members of IIT Bhubaneswar. Every team produced some unique items giving the campus and public an opportunity to savour on various cuisines from different parts of India. Mouthwatering items were served,

Prof. RV Rajakumar, Director, IIT, Bhubaneswar relishes on a mouthwatering delicacy

Hostel Council. It saw an active participation from student community at the institute.

The event was graced by Prof. RV Rajakumar, Director, IIT, Bhubaneswar, who expressed his happiness and encouraged the student community. Speaking on the occasion, he said, "Today, the students have shown that be it creation of unique engineering solutions, technology innovations or even cooking, IITians execute tasks at a high degree of standards. It gives me immense satisfaction and pleasure to see their progress on all fronts including successful execution of the event with perfection. I would like to congratulate each participating student for showcasing their innovative culinary skills during this food fest and I wish them good luck in all their future endeavours."

isfaction and pleasure to see their progress on all fronts including successful execution of the event with perfection. I would like to congratulate each participating student for showcasing their innovative culinary skills during this food fest and I wish them good luck in all their future endeavours."