Bhubaneswar: The Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Bhubaneswar in a notification today publicized that it has featured in India Today's list of the best government engineering colleges 2019. India Today, a weekly magazine announced on May 18, 2019, that it had awarded a rank of 9 to the institute. The magazine will publish the article in the upcoming issue dated May 27, 2019.

A marketing and consulting organization of India, Marketing and Development Research Associates (MDRA) prepared this list by conducting a survey. The parameters used were academic excellence, infrastructure and living experience, intake quality and governance, personality and leadership development, and career progression and placement.

The director of IIT Bhubaneswar, Prof R. V. Rajakumar beamed with satisfaction after seeing the position of the institute in the ranking framework of the country as well as in the global level. He further added that the administration and the faculty are striving towards raising the quality of education and incorporating innovative approaches to provide holistic development of the students.

Compared to the assigned rank of 10 in 2018 by the same survey, this year the institute has performed better and successfully moved one place above to score a rank of 9 in the list.

According to the National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF), IIT Bhubaneswar has ranked 17th across all educational institutes of the country and has obtained an overall rank of 20 in the Times Higher Education Emerging Economics University Rankings 2019.
