Welcome to NCP-2015

Department of Metallurgical and Materials Engineering, NIT Rourkela is going to organize 5th National Conference on Processing and Characterization of Materials (NCP-2015) during 12-13 December, 2015 after successful completion of earlier four conferences in this series (NCP-2011, NCP-2012, NCP-2013 and NCP-2014). "Processing and Characterization of Materials" is a foremost topic of interest for most of the researchers in the scientific community. In last few decades or so, it has been observed that researchers even from computer science, electrical engineering have started working in this domain for suitable applications. Advanced processing and characterization techniques make it possible to develop many new materials for different applications. The objective of the conference is to highlight all the advances developed in the area of processing and characterization of materials. The conference is expected to attract the researchers, scientists, practicing engineers from various R & D organizations, academic institutions and industries at a single forum. The interdisciplinary approach of the conference may allow the participants to look beyond their areas of activities. The organizers of the conference are already in touch with eminent researchers to deliver key note lectures on processing and characterization of materials. This is expected to be a platform for young researchers of the nation to discuss their work with eminent fellows of the field. Senior practicing engineers, established researchers and faculty members will also get an opportunity to share their knowledge and information.
